Resume

Sarah Dupriez is a cellist passionate by chamber music who also loves to teach and to perform with orchestra and in orchestra's. Briefly, she loves and lives for everything that has to make with music and cello.

Sarah plays with the best Belgian musicians, she is the principal cellist of the "Orchestre de Chambre de Liège", and teaches as well in music universities as in music schools. She also performs as a soloist.

Very open minded, she opened her romantic heart to baroc music and started recently to play the viola da gamba, too.

In the following pages, you will find the list of her diploma's and more details about all of her present and some of her past activities.
